SAVE 50c to $5.00 on the next dress you make by using THE DELTOR

The Deltor is a new patented invention just brought out with BUTTERICK PATTERNS and Butterick alone. Among many other advantages it gives a "layout" prepared by trained experts for placing the pieces of the pattern in the size you buy on any width of material you buy and thereby save for you one-eighth of a yard of material, more often one quarter and sometimes more.

Heretofore a pattern has been able to give only the amount of material which the average woman could use in laying out the pattern. It has not been possible to give the smallest amount on which experts could lay out the pattern because it is not safe to give the least possible quantity without giving the experts layout which permits this least possible quantity.

Now the Butterick Pattern with the Deltor, gives the smallest amount which the best trained experts can use, and the Deltor in the Butterick Pattern shows the layout by which this is accomplished. This means that the Butterick Pattern will always save all that it costs and usually many times more than it costs.

Boys Knickers

At prices that will appeal to all

The boys will have to have knickers, even if they do go camping, and we know how hard they are on them, having had quite an experience with boys ourselves. To do our share, we have reduced prices on some that we had on hand and have bought some new ones at a low price. We can give you something now commencing as low as $1.50 in the khaki in small sizes and from that up as high as you wish. Better see us first.

MEN'S HATS

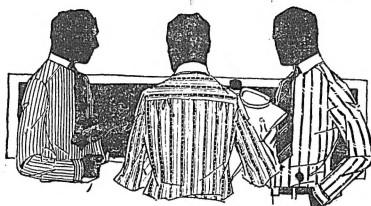

We pretty nearly had heart failure this Spring when we saw how many hats and caps we had. After a few brief but violent spasms, however, we came to and made up our minds we would sell them.

We put one line of Hats into Class A and sold them for $2.50 and another line into Class B and sold them at $3.50. We hadn't the courage to figure what they cost, but believe us, we sold a lot of them. There are a few left, but you had better get yours now. We have other lines, of course, with the soft velvety touch you so much admire in other things. They sell for $8.00 and you will agree that they are worth it when you see them.

CAPS—We are clearing up lines as high as $3.50 for $1.50. Come in and see them.

MEN'S SHIRTS

We've just had a new line of Men's Negligee Shirts come in by express. They are in very fine cloths with narrow black and blue lines on a white background and are sold for $2.50

We've had a dickens of a job to find a good shirt that we could sell for $2.50, but we believe we have got them now. You be the judge, though, and make us face the bar (of public opinion). We've faced others in our day, but we face this one more confidently.

MEN'S SOCKS

Two new lines of Men's Cashmere Hose just came hurrying in by express. One line sells for 75c and the other for $1.00. Last year these qualities sold for $1.50 and $1.75 respectively and we are greatly pleased with the nice reduction. You'll be too, when you see them. Of course we've got lots of other lines also, commencing with the humble but useful 25c lines and running up to beautiful pure silk ones.

BRAZIER'S NOVELTY STORE

THE C. O. C. U.

There is an old theory to the effect that the things which impress themselves most vividly on one's mind before going to sleep, are liable to have their effect on one's dream.

One evening recently we witnessed what was intended to be a real ball game, and we had a long drive to get home after the game was over. We made an effort to sling most of the way and frighten all the live stock along the road. Despite all this, our mind reverted to the old ball game, and from sheer fatigue we dropped off to sleep.

We dreamt we were following our habit as a reporter, and dropped in to see what was going on at a meeting in the Driford. Someone had just been appointed to act as chairman, and he went on to explain that the meeting had been called to devise ways and means of discouraging and discrediting the game of baseball that seemed to be attracting quite a lot of attention.

After some discussion, it was decided that an organization be formed. The chairman, Mr. Sam Balfour, then aroused the greatest enthusiasm among the delegates by suggesting that the organization be known as the Confederated Order of Confounded Umpires. He thought that the letters C.O.C.U. should be used on the official stationery, as there would be an element of curiosity aroused in the minds of the public that way, which should help the organization in its campaign for members. His remarks were cheered to the echo.

Owing to the fact that the members of the organization expected to be threatened with death very frequently when attempting to discharge their duties in accordance with the ideals of the order, they decided that the head office should be situated near the scene of their main operations and that there could be no more suitable location than among the Hills of Peace.

It was decided that no umpire who knew the rules of baseball would be eligible for membership unless he took a solemn oath to forget the rules whenever they interfered with the freedom of the home team to do just as they pleased whenever they pleased.

It was also agreed that a hammock should be provided for the base umpire at all games so that he would not be compelled to stand all the time. One delegate complained bitterly because someone suggested to him at the game on Friday night that he should even go near the base and see whether the runner was really safe or not. He assured the meeting, however, that he knew all the home players, and had always considered them safe; as for the visitors, his mind had taught him long ago to always be wary of strangers, and tell them to get "out" whenever they got too familiar. Anyhow he believed in "grabbin' games; when a man had the name, he might as well have the game. It was considered advisable for a member of the Order to wager money on the home team whenever he could; it would help to strengthen his backbone when, the captain of the other team came too close for comfort.

The Red Deer Baseball Team were the objects of a hearty vote of censure because they refused to play in silence, and particularly one, Jack Brazier, who talked quite saucy at times. The meeting was just about to proceed with the election of officers when—
We awoke to find it was only a dream.

ARMY WORMS IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Trainmen report millions of caterpillars or army worms between Fredrick Junction and Harvey, on the Canadian Pacific Railway line, and that train travel has been greatly impeded. For miles the forest has been stripped of foliage, and the tracks are covered with these worms. The Red Deer Baseball Team were the objects of a hearty vote of censure because they refused to play in silence, and particularly one, Jack Brazier, who talked quite saucy at times. The meeting was just about to proceed with the election of officers when—

TRIBUTE TO CANON CODY.

In his charge to the Anglican Synod, Bishop Sweeney, referring to the invitation to Canon Cody to become Archbishop of Melbourne, Australia, said: "It was pre-eminently a tribute to the well-merited, continent-wide fame which the canon has acquired in the church of the Overseas Dominions. It was an illustration of the solidarity of the church, a solidarity that ignores distance, and refuses to consider differences of time and condition between men of a common church-household. The declining of this great call was, I am sure, an intense relief to us all. Bishop, Diocese, congregation, and church at large in the Dominion, and we venture to hope that he may never have cause to regret his refusal."

AIDING THE AMPUTATED

Christian Nelson went overseas with the C.E.F., and suffered such grounds that his two legs had to be amputated. On December 17, 1919, he was given to understand that there was a vacancy as switchboard operator in the Toronto post office and he applied for the job, but was turned down and a girl given the work which the victim of war could have easily handled. Later, Col. George Ross, then P.O. superintendent here, recommended Nelson for stamp vendor, and the application was duly sent to Ottawa, but the Civil Service Commission notified him that he could not get that post, but they advised him to apply for a position as letter carrier! How the gentleman obeyed the orders of Secretary William Foenan expected a man without legs to deliver letters is not stated in the House of Commons Hansard, where the story is told by H. B. Morphy, M.P.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29th, 1921.

ALBERTA GOVERNMENT ON TRIAL

The Government has decided to take the plunge. Writs have been issued, and the vote will be a matter of history in less than three weeks.

As usual, the contest has come suddenly, and only a few candidates were definitely nominated before the election was announced. It will be a brief campaign, and in some ways it will be well to have it over with.

The government is appealing for support on its record. The News has taken issue with the government supporters at previous elections, and is not prepared to admit that all the objectionable features of the administration have been removed. Some of the politicians who have been criticized in these columns in the past, are still on the job, and we are not assured that they have experienced any material change of heart.

To be honest with the Premier himself, he is probably the most conscientious leader that the Liberal Government has ever had in Alberta. Hon.

Chas. Stewart is not receiving much criticism on his personal record, but candidly the time for some political house-cleaning is still overdue.

The Department of Agriculture, under Hon. Duncan Marshall, has been less subject to criticism during the past than it was previously. It must be admitted that Alberta's agricultural interests have been kept well

to the fore.

The Department of Health has been a creditable addition to the government activities, and the health legislation has many commendable features. The News can consistently approve of this in view of our attitude

in previous campaigns. The health of the people must be considered.

The Department of Public Works is grappling with a big problem, and has been reasonably amenable to requests for assistance where needed.

But we still have a long way to go in Alberta before we have satisfactory

road conditions.

The Minister of Education became involved in a dispute with the teachers which threatened the operation of the schools for a time, and he will be criticized in this connection. On the whole, the school system has some progress.

The Attorney-General's Department will be one of the storm centres

THE MUNICIPAL HOSPITALS

The committee in charge of the humanitarian campaign looking to the endorsement of the proposed Red

Deer Municipal Hospital District has very wisely decided to withhold the public meetings till the election is over.

Fortunately, the question is one on which all parties agree, and there is no reason why it should be a political football in this election contest, save that the presence of the organizers for any government department during an election campaign is taken as a sure indication of political propaganda.

One of the main planks of the platform on which the News stood should be to shoulder with Leader, now

Senator, McEwen, in the general election in 1917, read as follows:

"The Opposition stands for the application of the proceeds of the Will

Land Tax towards the establishment of Free Rural Hospitals and the appointment of a Public Hospital Board

to direct and supervise the same."

The ideas underlying the present

Hospital scheme are almost identical with this plank, although the details

vary slightly. The News and old time Conservatives in this province

are consistent in supporting the Man-

itist Hospital scheme as they do.

The Provincial U.P.A. Convention

in 1914 went on record as demanding

the establishment of Municipal Hospitals throughout the Province. Thus the attitude of the organized farmers of the Province is clearly defined, despite the lack of enthusiasm that sometimes characterizes individual farmers. The farmer movement claims to be founded on equity and co-operation, and these are the key words of the proposed Hospital scheme. The support of the progressive citizen-farmer is universal in this regard.

The government has passed the legislation making the scheme possible, and the true follower of the party will never turn his back on his leader and on the government he admires to the extent of opposing the Hospital policy adopted by the government.

But while all parties agree on the Hospital scheme, we can deal with the question more fully when the heat of the election is over.

OIL INSTEAD OF COAL

An investigation into the British coal mining industry recently made by an American coal trade journal showed that there were 1,185,000 men employed in the British mines in 1920,

and the total production of the mines

in that year amounted to 225,000,000 tons. The average output of each man was 193 tons. In the United spend his money in a poker game or get rid of it somehow if he couldn't risk it at the fair.

Councillor McKinnon moved that

Grants be same as last year.

Councillor Pickett moved in amendment that the total grant be $200,

divided pro rata between Red Deer

and Millerton.

The motion carried, with Councillors

Darrach and Pickett dissenting.

A. A. Hayles asked for the making of a road to his place near the city.

Councillor Waide agreed to meet Mr.

Hayles on the ground.

W. B. Goodacre asked for the building of a bridge that has been agitated

for some time. Councillor Waide promised to take action on the matter and also to see that a bad culvert

at Springvale is repaired. Criticism was made that outlying portions of this Division were not receiving proper attention.

The Wild Land Tax on the south

half of 23-27-28 for 1920 was struck off.

Councillor Reay was given authority to survey and open up diversion of road between sections 3 and 4-38-26.

Councillor Pickett was authorized to have diversions surveyed on roads

between Sec. 25-36-27 and Sec.

36-36-26.

2. Sec. 36-35-26 and Sec. 137-28.

3. Establish present diversion between Sec. 31-35-26 and Sec. 63-26-26.

It was decided that the Court of Revision deal with appeals in the order

in which they were received.

"JUSS" IS IN TOWN

"JUSS" (Harrison's special Hair Tonic and Dandruff Eradicator) is now on sale at all the local drug stores.

"JUSS" is the hair tonic that has been sold in Calgary by storm, more being sold there than all other hair tonics combined.

"JUSS" is absolutely guaranteed to kill dandruff, stop falling hair and promote a wonderful new growth, and every druggist is authorized by us to refund the purchase price on every empty bottle returned to him if it fails to do what we claim for it. You are the judge, use it for a month and if you are not more delighted with the results, get your money back without a question.

"JUSS" is made by two Calgary druggists with a combined experience of seventy-one years. It took them ten years to perfect the formula before it was offered to the public. It is as different to all other hair tonics as day is to night.

"JUSS" is a delightfully perfumed clear amber spirit mixture, a pleasure to use. It kills the worst case of dandruff in two weeks by destroying the dandruff germ, and it is simply a wonderful hair grower.

We know you have been stung time and time again by worthless hair tonics, put up to show a big profit, and few, if any of them, had any real merit. Just forget those stings and get a bottle of "JUSS" today: remember, it is absolutely guaranteed.

No more dandruff; no falling hair; no itchy or oily scalp. "Just rub in a little Juss"

All Red Deer druggists sell "JUSS" $2.00 per bottle (a full month's treatment)

PEACE OF THE WORLD MUST BE THE FIRST ENDEAVOR

Lord Curzon, British Foreign Secretary, Makes Attack in House of Lords on the League of Nations

London, June 23.—An unexpected attack was made on the League of Nations in the House of Lords tonight by Lord Curzon, secretary of state for foreign affairs. He declared that many existing international difficulties were due to the allies having taken the wrong turning in the making of peace, and he urged a strong appeal in the United States to most co-operation with the Allies. Parliament was entitled to more information, but he said this was a subject involved in obscurity. The language of the covenant was such that not even a trained lawyer knew what it meant. Lord Curzon was inclined to think there was a mistake in policy when the Allies met in Paris, in their extreme desire to get the League of Nations over the international statute book. They rushed almost with precipitation, he said, to discuss questions which it now was seen would better have been solved by being postponed. He could not help holding the opinion that if, instead of taking up the better regulation of the world, they had at the close of the war endeavored to secure the peace of the world as it then was, "we should have been much further advanced in the conditions of peace than we now are."

Lord Curzon entered into a long explanation of the British view showing that there had been no discourtesy on the part of the British government, but circumstances beyond its control had prevented the submission of mandates to the Washington government in the manner the latter required. Regarding the present position he believed there would be further postponement of the discussion on mandates. Expressing the government's extreme pleasure over the renewed United States interest in European affairs, the foreign secretary said the more co-operation in the manner best suited to the United States' own feeling was granted, the better it would be for the world's peace.

PIANO RECITAL

The closing piano recital of the season by pupils of Madame LeSauter has given in the School Assembly Hall Friday evening, June 17. Twenty three pupils took part. Although the strain of recent and impending examinations in school work and music made itself felt in a little nervousness on the part of some of the performers, the playing showed a high degree of taste and skill and was very creditable to both teacher and pupils. An interesting feature of these recitals is the progress shown by the pupils from one time to another, in some cases very marked.

EMPIRE CITIZENSHIP

What an incalculable asset the Canadian citizen possesses in his corresponding Empire citizenship, and how apt he is to overlook all this rich asset privilege stands forth in the Empire citizenship.

The Canadian is entitled to rejoice in his own national heritage. That in itself is a rare and valuable thing, and who underestimates it or disregards it is not only open to the severest censure but proves himself unworthy of it. But when there is added to the title of citizenship in a world-wide Empire of millions of souls, covering every part of the globe and including men of many diverse tongues and races, the greatness of the fact dawns upon one.

If Empire citizenship, however, were based merely upon a vast population, it would mean little; but when the traditions and history of the Empire are recalled, and when its standing and character among the nations of the world are remembered, then citizenship under the flag of such an Empire is the greatest gift any country can bestow. No Roman in the golden days of that Empire could boast of a prouder heritage.

Each and every Canadian is, therefore, a citizen partner in the greatest of all Empires since the dawn of history, and, as such, has his part to take and his contribution to make in maintaining its glories and keeping its asset value unimpaired. It is ours to pass on this high privilege as unimpaired as it came to us from our fathers; it is ours for a loyalty to that which is highest and best in the Empire's life.

Wool—Very little movement in east, where prices range 7c to 11c for greasy; washed wools around 15c.

EDMONTON EXHIBITION

The Edmonton Exhibition opens this year on Saturday, July 9th, with auto races, grand stand performance, midway shows and industrial exhibits. On Monday the live stock judging commences. The closing date is set for Friday, July 15th, when auto races will again be the special feature.

The live stock polo contest will be held every day in front of the grand stand, and horse races are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. A beautiful programme of aerial fireworks has been arranged for each evening of the exhibition. A change has been made in the midway shows for this year; the Wortham shows having been contracted for. This is one of the big and best aggregations in the carnival business, and each show is of the highest character available.

Reduced railway fares have been granted on all railways. For motor-campers, the exhibition management have set aside a camping ground where tents may be pitched beside cars, a kitchen with running water and stove is provided for the use of campers, and cots and straw mattresses may be rented if desired; campers may bring their own tents, or rent tents at from $4 to $7.50, the sizes ranging from 8x10 to 14x16 feet square.

Those wishing accommodation in private houses will also be looked after, as Manager Stark is now compiling a list of those with rooms to rent to exhibition visitors. Information regarding any department in the Edmonton Exhibition will be freely and heartily given to any maker of enquiries of Manager W. J. Stark, Edmonton.

The U. S. weather bureau officials forward the theory that some of the ships that have disappeared mysteriously on the high seas have fallen victims to the series of unusually severe storms for which are known have swept those areas in the first week of February, 1921.

OLD BLINDMAN LINE IS MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

Steel is Already Laid Over River Bridge—Grade is Four Miles Beyond

Progress in the construction of the Lacombe and Northwester railway is reported by J. Bush, civil engineer for the company. The road, which has been taken over by the Alberta provincial government, and which formerly was known as the Blindman Valley railroad, is now constructed for four miles beyond the 200 foot trestle bridge over the Blindman river, completed three weeks ago. Steel is laid over the bridge, the grade having been completed, four miles beyond the trestle. The thriving town of Rimby is the terminal station on the line to date, this station being located four miles east of the Blindman river bridge.

Mr. Bush does not look for more steel to be laid this year, except light steel in the various sidings en route. About forty men are engaged in construction, a number building a large tank near the bridge at Blindman river. The work is being carried out by the Northern Construction company of Edmonton, who also have the government contract in rebuilding and completing the Alberta and Great Watervay railway to Fort McMurray.

Eighty miles of the road from Lacombe to Strathcona remains to be completed. The work is being carried out by the Northern Construction company of Edmonton, who also have the government contract in rebuilding and completing the Alberta and Great Watervay railway to Fort McMurray.

Rimby boasts of four large general stores, two pool rooms, several implement stores, and other businesses that go to make a progressive little town. The old townsite is located a mile from the present station, where a large hotel of sixteen rooms, new pool room and store have recently been built. Benjamin Rimby, founder of the town, is owner and proprietor of the new hotel. Two contractors, the United Grain Growers and the Alberta Pacific, have been constructed near the station. Four sidetracks, in addition to the main line, give Rimby the appearance of an important railway point.

Mr. Bush claims that there has not been a crop failure in the Rimby district for the past eighteen years, and that it is an ideal stock raising country. Many herds of cattle and other stock can be seen grazing on the well settled areas tributary to the town. A considerable number of new settlers came in this year, the majority of them buying out farms that have already been improved.

A quantity of 56 pound steel purchased by the government last year from the C.P.R. will be used for sidetracks at the various stations along the road, the regular track having been laid with sixty pound material. A steam shovel is being brought in immediately with which to get out gravel to complete the ballasting of the road. Mr. Bush assigns as the reason for the cessation of steel track laying to the inability of the government to provide sufficient appropriations for the work at the present time. When completed the road will pass through a territory well settled in the province for productivity and general prosperity. Mr. Bush returns the middle of next week to continue work in connection with the line.

June 20th, 1921.
Miss Maud McBeth, who has been spending a few days of her vacation with her parents here, was the recipient of a surprise visit from a number of the young people last Thursday, June 16. Dancing was entered into with much zest and carried on until early next morning. During the week ending June 16, dancing was attended school at Dayton, Columbia County, Washington. At the examinations held some time ago she gained the following marks in the various subjects: Grammar, 95; Physiology, 92; Arithmetic, 76; History, 89; Literature, 89; Geography, 74; Spelling, 97; Agriculture, 88; Writing, 89.

Two hours last Friday, and the downpour of Saturday afternoon will give the crops here a supply of moisture that was much needed.

Dancing as usual every Friday evening from 9 to 12 o'clock at "Johnnie's" place. Ice cream and all kinds of soft drinks on sale.

The cellar for the Community hall has been completely excavated; the cement is here now all ready for work; the pile of gravel, hauled in by another volunteer will be augmented by a few more loads; the mixing board, water barrel and shovels will soon come into operation and then the foundation will be laid.

This will appear in print out here about the time everybody is getting headed in the direction of the concert, box social and dance. As a last possible reminder, it may meet the eye of some one who has inadvertently forgotten, and will immediately turn their steps in the right direction.

Councillor Carl has had a crew of men and team engaged at work on Herby's line. It wouldn't hurt to go a little further south.

Geo. Johnston saw a big buck deer on Ennor Anderson's place on Friday. George has a horse, hired from Mr. Mayberry, on home-stead, and is making the old road these days.

Wm. Rutherford had the misfortune to get one of his new colts cut in the wire.

That old reliable, S. Davenport, is going some on the breaking. Who says it don't rain in Alberta? The rains of Thursday and Saturday went into the ground from three to six inches. Crops were getting juicy on spring plowing, but will revive now.

F. Hart is doing a fine job putting in the approaches to the bridge on his east line.

Patterson and Baker are fighting bulldozers and other popular stunts a little further south.

Don't forget the picnic and sports June 1st at Cedar Heights.

A new culvert was put in on the Johnston and Reilly hill. This will be good idea to run the water off over the side.

G. Johnston is thinking of making a business trip to Minnesota.

There is lots of fish in the Loback creek.

THIS store now offers to its customers the Belrobe Method for home sewing. In managing her dress allowance it is every woman's pet ambition to combine the utmost in style with a real dollars-and-cents economy. And now the coming of the Belrobe Method makes it possible for even the least experienced to realize this ambition. If you follow the Belrobe Method the clothes that you make at home will have more style than you ever dreamed of, for less than you planned to spend.

BELROBE METHOD

for home sewing

saves from 50c to $10.00 on material alone

The Belrobe Method, with every new DESIGNER PATTERN, gives you the cutting-layout that a professional would use to save every possible inch of your material. These layouts are planned for every size and for every suitable width that you could use economically.

With a Belrobe Method layout you will often use as much as a yard less than you would otherwise have dared to depend on. This will mean a very considerable saving on your dress allowance.

Next, when you are putting the garment together, you will find a set of instructions—picturized, not fussily explained—to help you to seam, to drape, and to fit your dress exactly as you want it.

And finally, when you come to the last few stitches, there is a special set of instructions to help you get the mysterious little tricks of really smart finishing that you have never been able to copy or imitate.

The Belrobe Method is now included in the same envelope with DESIGNER PATTERNS. It can not be purchased separately. Ask to see it at our pattern counter—it will give you a new realization of what can be done with some of the beautiful materials that will be fashionable this summer.

SPORT NOTES.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY
AT WETASKIWINA Stormy Game, Characterized by Rank Umpiring on Bases.

It has been said that visitors cannot win ball games at Wetaskiwin. The experience that Red Deer has had this season seems to bear out the fact. The Red Deer boys journeyed north last Friday and received what they considered to be a very raw deal. The umpire who officiated on the wettery work was not infallible in his decisions, but he was generally fair, and the Red Deer team have no grudge against him.

The base umpire, however, was positively rank in his decisions, and nearly succeeded in breaking up the game at various stages.

Red Deer drew first blood, when Downey, second man to bat, landed a nice single and came home on Fadden's double.

Three more runs were added to the Red Deer tally in the 3rd, when Padden made a two-bagger, followed by singles from Downey and Fitzgerald.

Nelson's foul was handled by the catcher, and Smith's single brought the third run in.

For Wetaskiwin, Gouche and Godfrey singled in the third, and the former came home when Johnson's fly was muffed at 2nd.

Godfrey went to the dugout. Butchart took the box, and Red Deer went down one, two, three in the 4th, but the Wetaskiwin session brought on a storm, and before the third man had been admitted as a batter, the rain was so heavy that the game was suspended.

Harvey and Ryan had scored despite the fact that not a single safe hit had been made. Four errors, a passed a stolen base and other steals told the story despite the fact that Campbell and Godfrey both struck out.

Wetaskiwin scored again in the 5th as the result of a misunderstanding between Day and Fitzgerald in right field, which allowed Johnson to reach first, and come home on flies by Dolingham and Butchart.

Both sides scored one in the 7th. Day reached first on fielder's choice. Nelson reached first on fielder's choice.

single and Percival made a double. They all came home before the smoke cleared away. Score 7 to 4 in Red Deer's favor.

But Ponoka tied in the 5th, with 2 hits, 3 errors and 2 strike-outs.

Ponoka added three more in the 6th when Peterson went into the box cold. Campbell singled, Ford walked and Rohwer singled. Hedley struck out. Eley was retired at first, but Stack's single brought the third man home.

Red Deer made a valiant effort to tie up the score in the 8th, and nearly succeeded in doing so. Fitzgerald and Peterson scored, Wagner's single contributing to the result. Percival put out a tricky fly, which Stack handled, retiring the side, and leaving Wagner marooned.

It was a disappointing game for the big crowd that gathered at the ball park, but an off night is liable to come in any sport, and we'll hope for better things next time.

ROCKY MOUNT'N HOUSE

June 19, 1921.
On Friday last, about 4:30 p.m., fire completely destroyed McCann's Rooming House. The cause of the fire was a defective chimney. Every effort of the citizens to save the building, one of the oldest buildings of the village, was useless, and only part of the furniture was saved. A small cottage close by was saved by keeping wet blankets on the roof.

A party of government surveyors—one of the sixteen engineering parties—are working in this vicinity in connection with the damming of the Saskatchewan river. More particulars in this connection will be furnished later.

Crops are four inches high round Fadden, and a big crop is anticipated. Goul reports are received from the south and north, and all we now need is good roads.

Our tailor, Mike, is quitting home-steading, and is building a new shop close by and will devote all his time to tailoring.

The basement of the new Imperial Bank is now completed, also the grading of the street. It is now ready for the carpenters and the concrete workers.

Mr. and Mrs. Melton's new building on Centre St. is nearly completed. It will be a first-class pool hall and boarding house and will be convenient for travellers coming from the depot.

MULE BUSING A LA MODE

The residents of the village were given an open air exhibition of mule busing on Saturday evening about 9 p.m. Over 200 spectators were lined up on both sides of the street.

The mule, which had been working steadily all day hauling gravel and sand, was claimed by its owner to be an outlaw as far as riding was concerned.

The saddling part of the business took quite a while. The mule stood very patiently, wondering what was coming off. Several sarcastic remarks were passed, such as "Whisper in his ear."

"Tie something to its tail." "Close the barn door." "Ring the bell." "Let her rip." Finally the mule was on its feet, and the spurs had to be safely adjusted.

Mr. Chears (that's the man with the chaps on) now gave another look at the stirrups, and before Neddy Red Deer was off he was on top and he stayed right there. There was some snoring and some attempt at bucking and away they went.

Neddy (that's the mule) he made straight for the barber's shop and got on the sidewalk. Women screamed: the barber said, "Next, please." Neddy stood right still, wondering what he should do next. Slim came along and caught the halter rope and took him on to the street again.

Mr. Chears then took his hat off and commenced putting Neddy good and hard then he raced for home but was brought back again. Bill Symonds said it was enough for one day, so the performance was brought to a successful close. There is one thing we must admit, that is, Mr. Chears can ride.

The new mine at Alexo, near Hurburg, opened on 14th, and expects to be running full time so to be in good shape by the fall.

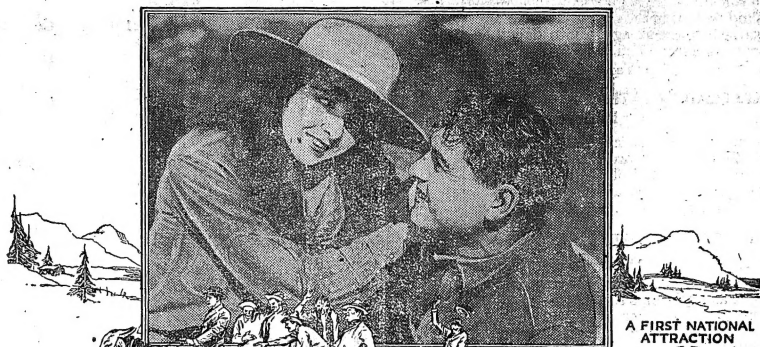

Norwegian mine is only working three days per week till the fall season starts up.

A very impressive ceremony was held at the cemetery on Sunday afternoon, when the Independent Order of Oddfellows marched there to pay their respects to their dead comrades, it being their annual Memorial Day.

On Friday heavy rain fell here from 2 a.m. until 12 noon. Monday it rained from 9 a.m. until 12 noon. Men in the camps had to quit work on both days.

A LOOSE GAME

It was a night off for all concerned and both teams had an attack of summer fever, or something of that sort.

Four errors in the 1st inning, without a hit, gave Ponoka 3 runs. A fielder's choice, stolen base and another error let Stack score again in the 3rd.

Red Deer had a regular sweat-fest in the 4th. Downey got 1st on an error at 3rd, Fitzgerald hit by pitcher, Nelson doubled, Peterson and Wagner

FARMERS ORGANIZE IN 17 RIDINGS IN
THE PROVINCE

Nine Conventions Called for St. Paul,
Gloucester, Rimbou, Vermilion,
Macleod, Innisfail, Nanton,
Olds and Didsbury.

Since the U.F.A. definitely decided to enter provincial politics the farmers have organized in seventeen ridings, and nine more will be added to their list within the next few weeks, as nine conventions for reorganization
have been called by the central office
by request of the locals interested.
There are sixty-one seats in the provincial house, of which thirteen are urban, and two have a very large labor vote, namely, Rocky Mountain and Edison. Dedicating these fifteen from the total number of ridings leaves forty-six, of which twenty-six will be contested before July 9.

The urban seats are distributed five in Calgary, five in Edmonton, one in Lethbridge and two in Medicine Hat.
While the Medicine Hat seats will be contested at large within the riding, it is considered that the preponderance of votes will be decided through city polls.

The principal ridings already organized by the U.F.A. are as follows:
Peace River, Lac St. Anne, Pembina,
Stony Plain, Wetaskiwin, Lacombe,
Red Deer, Edmonton, Stettin, Con-
stantin, Hand Hills, Acadia, Little Bow, St. Albert, Beaver River, Cotterangue (not represented in the house),
and Redcliff.

Conventions for the purpose of organizing provincial committees have been held in the U.F.A. will be held as follows: Claresholm, on June 25, at Banville; St. Paul, July 4, at Ban-ville; Vermilion, July 4, at Vermilion;
Macleod, July 6, at Macleod; Innisfail, July 6, at Innisfail; Nanton, July 6, at Nanton; Olds, July 7, at Olds; and Didsbury, July 8, at Acme.

It is expected that many other conventions will be held within the next week or two in provincial ridings, as this will leave twenty ridings still unorganized.

EVERYBODY SEES A CHANGE IN FATHER

Grateful Son Says His Father Looks Like Different Man Since Taking Tanlac.

"My father has suffered from chronic stomach trouble for over twenty years, and has paid out thousands of dollars for medicine and doctors," said G. W. Stoyton, a well-known Cobb County farmer, living a short distance out of Atlanta, Ga.
"We tried nearly everything trying to cure him, and he went off to the Springs, thinking maybe the water might help him, but it looked like nothing would reach his trouble.
Then he tried dieting and lived on liquid food until he almost starved, but even that failed to do him any good and he just kept going from bad to worse."

"I don't guess there ever was a case
as stubborn as his, and if there ever was a cured dyspeptic, he was one of them, and I guess he would have been one yet if it hadn't been for this Tanlac."

"The first we heard of this medicine was when my father saw an advertisement in the papers from parties he knew in Tennessee, who were friends of his, and he knew what they said about it was the truth, so he got right away and began taking it. Well, sir, it acted just like magic—everybody notices the change in father. Why he is just like a different man, and sits down to the table and eats like a farm-hand. Only yesterday he sat at pork and turnips for dinner and ate so much we were actually afraid he was going to over-
do things, but he laughed and said nothing hurt him now and that he was hungry and expected to eat and make up for lost time."

"Now, when a medicine will do things like that, I think people ought to know about it, and I want to say that I don't know now that I would not buy a bottle of Tanlac for all the other medicines and health resorts in the country put together."

NORTHUP

Was it a success? Ask the young folks. That means everybody, for at the first picnic of the Northup School District, held on June 18, years were frogetting, in the exhilaration of the moment, age and dignity were dung to the winds and some of our most stalwart matrons and benedicts could be seen running, jumping and skipping
like school children.

The day started inauspiciously enough with a visit from more long-absent friend, Junior Pluvius, who right away decided to take a hand in the proceedings. His appearance caused a hasty retreat to the schoolhouse.
Once inside, no time was lost in determining the program for the day. The mening a concert. The teacher, Mr.
Len Huskins, was elected to the chair,
and the program started with a song from the children. Volunteers were called for from among the groupings to add their contribution to the entertainment. Many responded nobly and a most varied and high class entertainment was the result. Special mention should be made of Mrs. Munro's entirely original "Burns" to a field of "The Burns" of Mr. Allan Blair's "Edinburgh After Flooded," and Mr. Lewis engaging story-telling.

The outdoor part of the picnic was outlasted the rain, but was brought to an abrupt close by the stirring voices of Mr. Avery and Mrs.
Avery singing "dinner."

As soon as the youngsters were well stocked with cakes, candies, the sports began. Children's and adults' events alternated, and as everybody took a hand in right good will at all went smoothly and smoothly.
Then followed supper, and after supper
the distribution of prizes by the Lary-Breastner.

For the children's events, much cash prizes were given. Hugh Munro, Dan Blair, and Earl Blair carried off a large share of the prizes. The ladies received minor prizes of chocolate and fruit.
For the men's prizes the usual kind of things was reversed, the first prize being one solitary peanut, the second a box of chocolate and the third a orange. Messrs. Eastman, Blair and Huskins bore up to the best of the prizes. A box of chocolate and the third share of the prizes. A box of chocolate and the third share of the prizes.

Considerable interest was shown in the new building, the sports equipment
just provided, the children's gardens,
and the teacher's experimental plots.
Some thirty varieties of cereals, eleven plants and shrubs, and many other plants and shrubs are being tried out this year.

A free-for-all football match brought this most enjoyable day to a close, and all repeated vowing that this, the first Northup picnic, would not be the last.

PLEASURES THAT PENALIZE

We all know that there are pleasures that injure no one. They impair neither our physical nor our moral well-being. They tone up the system, and breathe a beautiful atmosphere
into our lives.

But what is the nature of the pleasures that are sure to penalize those who indulge in them, that create an inevitable aftermath of remorse and sorrow? How can we recognize these pleasures—avoid them? Conscience is ever watchful for danger, and is ready to sound its alarm-bell. Like the good sentinel it is, not only our savior, but even those whom it suspects, are sure to be pointed out by it.

Apart from the penalty of actual suffering that these forbidden "pleasures" visit upon the heads of those who indulge in them, there is that other penalty, too often lost sight of,
but not to be ignored by any means—
the penalty of moral condemnation by those who see and recognize the evil of such things. They are sure to become suspicious of one who knowingly ignores his convictions of right and wrong.

There are Christians, so called,
who eat forbidden food, knowing it is forbidden, but such Christians inevitably lose their power and influence for good with those whom they might otherwise help. After all, is there any severer penalty than that visited upon anyone than the loss of a good name will often find that other industry for money nor host-of sympathetic friends can bring back to him the treasure that has gone
from him.

Avoid the pleasures that penalize, that God sends to refresh the lives of His people. Seek to find pleasure but use the healthy, helpful pleasures
in His service.

THE SWEET O' THE YEAR

Charles G. D. Roberts.
The upland hills are green again;
The river runs serene again;
All down the miles
Of orchard glades
The plump blues are seen again;
To garden close
And dandelion plot
Come back the rose
And bergamot.

The ardent blue larks near again;
The far-down swallows here again;
His throbbing heart
Returns the thrush.
And the painted-wings appear again.
In young surprise
The meadows run.
All starry eyes.
To meet the sun.

Warm runs young blood in the veins
again;
And warm loves flood in the rains
again.
All with a flush
To her heart's desire attains again;
While stars outbeat
The exultant word—
"Death's in defeat,
And Love is Lord."

AMBULANCE

ANNOUNCEMENT

Owing to the fact that we, the undersigned Coal and Wood Dealers, having to pay spot cash for coal and wood, find ourselves forced to place our business on an Absolutely Cash or C.O.D. basis.

After giving this matter the most careful consideration, we have come to the conclusion, that a cash business will be more satisfactory to our Customers, as it will eliminate the loss in bad accounts that we experience, which is a big factor in determining the prices of fuel.

Therefore, on and after JULY 1st, All Orders Must be Accompanied by CASH, or Paid For On Delivery.

In order to save inconvenience to our Customers, and additional expense to ourselves, where cash does not accompany the order, kindly arrange to make payment direct to teamsters at time of delivery, otherwise the fuel will be returned.

FAIR NOTES

Fair time is near.

Prospects are good for a large exhibit of live stock.

The first entries have been received by the S. rotary. Leonard and Russell Berch, of Didsbury, have entered their ponies and expect to win the prizes as best boy riders. This will be some contest, boys.

Every boy and girl, 12 years old and under, will be admitted free to the Fair on Monday, the 18th.

A real wild animal show will be featured on the Midway this year.

A. R. Gibson, assistant superintendent of the children's classes, expects keen competition and interest to be displayed. Sure thing. Somebody has already hinted that he would wear the kilts those days.

Frank Tallman is thinking of acting as judge of pure bred cattle this year instead of the fancy work. He thinks his ideas of values are going to waste. For the land's sake!

Everything is swinging into shape for the big Fair. The merchants are requested to have special window displays and every flag in the city should be up during the three days of the Fair. We have a city to be proud of. Let's prove it.

WINTER SLEEP IN PSKOV

Book Notes:

Professor Pitkin remarks that we realize but very dimly how very incredibly low some of the world's living standards are.

In one of the provinces of Russia—Pskov—he says that there is a custom which almost rivals the well-known habits of the bear.

"There is a custom known as 'letka', or 'winter sleep'. When cold weather comes, the peasant family of the poorest sort gathers about the stove, lies down and goes to sleep. Once a day everybody wakes up and eats a hunk of bread, which has been prepared in quantity for the long winter sleep. The bread is washed down with a little water, then the liberator goes back to sleep. With but little variation this semi-starvation is kept up for the six bitter, dark months, and then spring breaks, these gaunt but healthy muzzles go out of doors, stretch themselves and resume work and the square meal."
